PROTOCOLS RULES ETIQUETTES

LT CDR. KV SINGH (Retd.)

Foreword by
NAVEEN JINDAL, Member of Parliament

THE TIMES OF INDIA

This book traces the history of the National Flag from pre-independence days. It throws light on the significance of the three colours used in the Tiranga and their relevance in India's history and culture. It brings home the important message that the Tricolour belongs to us, the people of India, but with freedom to use the flag comes the responsibility to follow all guidelines, rules and etiquettes while using the flag. The book lists out all the amendments made in the Flag Code of India and relevant Acts.

Born in 1938, Lt Cdr. KV Singh, Retd., was a Commissioned Officer and served the Indian Armed Forces for thirty years. He was briefly with the West Bengal Civil Service (Executive) as Deputy Collector and Magistrate. He is widely travelled within the country and abroad.

Cdr. Singh has authored various books in English including Quiz India, The Indian Tricolour, From Coins to Credit Card, Colourful World of Flags and Lesser Turned Pages of India as well as in Hindi such as Tiranga Ki Gourav Gatha, Vishva ke Prashidha Heere Jawahrat and Hindu Manyataon Main Vigyan. He has also compiled few books like An Insight into the World Religions and Rites and Rituals of Hindus and Muslims of Undivided India. He has also been an anchor and a participant in numerous television programmes.
